Part 3Cases

195

The cases are intended for private study and it is unlikely that there will be enough time for them to be dealt with individually in class sessions. Students will be expected, however, to have read the majority of the cases. They are grouped in five chapters for convenience. Cases may also be assigned for pre-class preparation.

Part 4Questions for Discussion

605

Students are expected to consider and think about some or all of the 30 Questions for Discussion. Questions may also be assigned for pre-class preparation.

Part 5

Bibliographical Notes

609

General Bibliography

613

Part 5 is intended mainly for the assistance of students who elect to write papers.
